THE PARK COMMISSIONERS DISCUSS THE RIVER SIDE ASSESSMENTS-PROPOSITION TO RESTORE THE PROPERTY TO THE OWNERS—A MAJORITY IN FAVOR OF REDUCING PRESENT LIMITS OF THE PARK.

The Riverside Park matter has assumed an entirely new and unexpected phase, and it is a matter of doubt whether the Park will ever be laid out, but if it should be it will probably be reduced to comparatively small dimensions. The article published in THE TRIBUNE of June 13, in regard to the large sums which were about to be levied upon the tax payers, created a decided sensation, and whom it was amnounced that nearly $6,200,000 were about to be levied upon the tax-payers of the city at large for the creation of a park of doubtful value, a general sentiment was expressed by disinterested parties that some effort should be made to reduce the amounts-that an effort should be made to dispense entirely with the proposed park. This sentiment pre-valled more generally among tax-payers whose property wased more generally among tax-payers was clistent from the land appropriated, and in order to decide what action should be taken, several prominent lawyers of this city held a consultation concerning the matter. It was agreed that all efforts to induce the present Commissioners of the Riverside Park, Messrs. Traphagen, Graham, and Sutherland, to make any such rehagen, Graham, and Sutherland, to make any such re-duction as they demanded would be useless, as the Commissioners were in a measure bound to accept the statements of property-holders in the vicinity of the Park as to the values of property taken, and that as many of these persons were interested in the matter, they could not expect any great success in that direc-tion. Moreover, the tax-payers and gentlemen spoken of desired, if possible, to achieve their object by having the park property returned to their owners, or its present dimensions greatly reduced. Such action, of course, could not be taken by the Riverside Commisners nor by the Supreme Court : the functions of the former being confined to levying the assessments and naming the amounts of awards on the property as already laid out on the maps; and the province of the court being confined to confirming or rejecting their report. The propriety of keeping the matter before the courts, or otherwise delaying final action until the matter could be brought before the next Legislature for action, was then discussed. Various propositions were made to bring about the desired result, but none of them seemed feasible or according to law. A reference was then had to the statute, and the discovery was made that the Cen-tral Park Commissioners who condemned the Park had the power to rescind their action up to the time maps should be placed on record in the County Clerk's Office. Investigation soon revealed that the maps had never been so recorded. Several of the legal centiemen subsequently called upon Controller Green and urged upon him, as guardian of the city's finances, and also as member of the Park Commission, to stand between the tax-payers and the city, and do all in his power to prevent this great addition to the tax-levy. The Controller said that he would consider the matter in all its bearings, and act for the best interests of the city. At a meeting of the Central Park Commissioners held en the 19th inst., there were present Messrs. Green, Dillen, Fields, Oimsted, and Church. After the transaction of some routine business, one of the Commisers read the following resolution, and moved its eresian perion of the City of New-York, passed april 28, 1205, or an are hereby discontinued.

One or two of the members, who had never conceived that the Commissioners possessed the power to act according to the suggestions made, or, if they had, that any such resolutions would be entertained, asked an explanation for such "remarkable resolutions." The mover of the resolutions then recited the circumstances under which the Park was first condemned, recapitulated the action of the first Commissioners—Messix. Tweed, Sweeny, and Hugh Smith—and spoke of the large amounts as fixed by the present Commissioners, mentioned the burden it entailed upon tax-payers, and concluded by saying that the interests of the city demanded that the Commissioners should resolute the first condemning the Park, and restore the property to its owners, or else curtail the tract of ind as formerly laid out, and thereby relieve the tax-payers of a great and needless burden. The matter was then discussed with some warmth, and in view of the fact that it had been introduced without previous notice, it was finally laid over for future consideration at the next meeting. Meanwhile the Elversidic Park Commissioners were hearning objections to the amounts of their awards and assessments at their office, in Murray-st, unconscious that a movement was already under way to remove the matter entirely beyond their juri-diction or the juradiction of the Court before whom they were to present their report for confirmation on the 9th of July next. On last Wednesday the resolutions were brought up for final disposition before the Central Park Commissioners, and an excited discussion took place. Messrs. Dilion and Fields spoke at considerable length in favor of giving the property back to its original owners, and Messrs. Of meted and Cnurch opposed it vigorously, while Control should be made.

Mr. Pleids said that this afforded a grand opportunity m should be made. Mr. Fields said that this afforded a grand opportunity neither direction, thought a modification of the resolution should be made.

Mr. Fleids said that this afforded a grand opportunity for those persons who chained to be true reformers to give evidence of it, and save the united tax-payers of this city over $6.00,000, and that although he knew he didn't possess the general reputation of being one of the most noisy advocates of reform and retreachment, yetit seemed to him that the creation of this park, as at present hid out, was unnecessary, and that it should be so modified in size as to necessitate the assessment of amounts ecommensate with its merely local character, and create a burden so light that residents in the vicinity and those only who shall use it and be benefited by it, should have to pay the cost. There is no reason, he said, why persons owning property in Chambers or Essex-st.
should be indirectly taxed to pay for a narrow strip of land appropriated on the extreme upper end of the island, or that persons residing on Forty-second-st., or on the borders of the Central Fark, be assessed directly for an improvement which interests property-owners only in the immediate vicinity of the land condemned.

Mr. Robert J. Dilion spoke at some length concerning the awards and assessments, stating that he believed that they should be rated according to the value of the property when it was first condemned by the Commissioners, and that they should be made irrespectively of individuals, and according to some established principle.

The Riverede Commissioners, while not disposed to approve the resolution as a whole, thought that, for many reasons, the resolution as a whole, thought that, some modification should be made, and it was proposed finally that the matter be laid over until the next meeting on July 10. This, after some further discussion, was agreed to, After the meeting had adjourned, however, it was remembered that the Riverside Commissioners could act. It was, therefore, agreed to call a special meeting for next Tuesday evening, when a determi

SECRET SESSIONS OF THE PARK COMMISSIONERS. The Park Commission having twice voted down resolu tions offered by Commisioner Field for the holding of its meetings in open session, and still continuing to transact its business in executive session, a reporter of THE TRIB-UNE called upon President Olmsted yesterday to ascertain the reasons of the Board for vailing its proceedings with secrecy. Mr. Olmsted stated that, having very recently come into the Board, and expecting to hold his position but temporarily, he did not feel able to speak for his associates in the matter. He said, however, that the meetings of the Board had not been public since its organization, fifteen years ago; that a considerable part of its business was of the character ordinarily transacted in executive session by all legislative bodies, such as in executive session by all legislative bodies, such as that relating to appointments and the inquiry into and review of the conduct of its various officials. An attempt to wholly separate this class of business from all other, and to hold separate meetings for each, he thought would be difficult if not altogether impracticable. The minutes of the proceedings of the Board, he said, were open to all, and he thought it doubtful if anything would be gained by opening the meetings to the public.

GARBAGE IN THE STREETS.

Frequent complaints are made by Superintendent Thorne and Deputy Superintendent Ambrose of the refuse thrown into the streets in the tenement house districts. A reporter of THE TRIBUNE passed, vesterday, through several of the lower wards, and found ample evidence that the complaints were well grounded. In Mulberry, Mott, Bayard, Park, and other streets in the fixth Ward; Rosseveit, James, Cathariae, Cherry, and water-ste, in the Fourth Ward; and Washington and Water-ste, in the Fourth Ward; and Washington and Greenwich, in the First Ward, there were blocks in which nearly every tenement had piese of garbage and ashes in front of it. Nearly 20 persons were caught emptying rubbish in the streets, and were arrested; but they were all discharged by Justice Hogan, who subsequently addressed a letter to the Police Board, stating that the people had no other nosans of getting rid of refuse.

The Board of Police received, yesterday, a community of the land of through several of the lower wards, and found ample

Senator Lewis called up a question as to summon witnesses by telegraph in the Prindle case, as there was a prospect of getting through with the McCunn case by 2 p. m. to-day, and the Clerk was directed to telegraph sses to be present as soon as possible. The McCunn case was then resumed.

Charles W. Banks was then called for and sworn. He was counsel for Beecher, the assignee in the case, and related the action of Judge McCunn In directing the arrest of Beecher. He did not hear McCunn threaten that he would drive Bininger out of the country.

Edward Van Ness, the next witness, was plaintiff in the case of Van Ness agt. Leeds and others, and de-tailed the circumstances of the case, which were that the action was referred and a receiver appointed, when not asked for by either party. The papers in the case were put in evidence. Joseph Larocque was counsel for the defendants in the ase of Brandon agt. Buck, Duncan, Sherman & Co. This was a case of the appointment, by Judge McCunn, of a receiver of $12,000, deposited with Duncan, Sherman & Co., belonging to the Hansom Cab Company.

The witness stated that no application had been made for a receiver, and that it was done in opposition to the wishes of the parties in interest; that subsequently the wishes of the parties in interest; that subsequently the order was vacated, and afterward, again, another receiver was appointed by order of Judge McCunn.

James T. Morgan testified that Dubots came to him and wanted him to go to Judge McCunn and ask for a receiver to be appointed; I refused to make the application, saying that were I to do it, Judge McCunn would refuse to grant the application; I refused on the ground of its impropriety; witness is a brother-inlaw of Judge McCunn; I have been frequently applied to to make such applications to Judge McCunn, and have refused: I never made such application to him, except in the case of McHarg; the application was made by another party, and was granted.

James M. Gano said: I was appointed receiver in the case of Cory agt. Langley, by Judge McCunn; that order was vacated, and I was reappointed by Judge Barber; I employed men to make sales; I employed Isaac A. Conking, Cary, the piaintif, and several others; they acted as such salesmen; the property was spooled silk; never carried on the business of spooled silk; an not a lawyer; was appointed receiver in two other cases; have rendered account in the case of Cary agt. Long; the property sold for about $8,000.

William Van Wyck was attorney, making application

William Van Wyck was attorney, making application for receiver in the case of Anna M. Ellicit vs. Mary P. Butler, James M. Gano was appointed: I took no further steps in the case; did not ask the appointment of Gano; McCunn selected him; complainant was to collect the rents from a sub-tenant, so that the superior landlord could be paid; Judge McCunn was the superior landlord; the receiver was directed to collect all moneys due defendant from boarders.

Lewis H. G. Ehrhart, son-in-law of Mrs. Butler, detailed several cases of inconvenience resulting from the order.

tailed several cases of inconvenience resulting from the order.

James M. Gano recalled—He had paid over to a Sherin's deputy the moneys he had collected in the Elliott vs. Butler case on being served with an attachment; he knew nothing of the matter beyond that he knew that Mrs. Elliott was considerably in debt to Judge McCunn then, and is now; Judge McCunn came to the house on my sending for him, and on coming there he said. "For God's sake settle this matter, or you will get me in trouble; I did not know that this was my house;" Judge McCunn has some twenty or twenty-five houses, and I collected the reuts; I have power of attorney to sign his name to receipts, checks, &c. Counsel stated that in these two cases no bond of security was required of the receiver.

that in these two cases no bond of security was required of the receiver.

Mr. Laroque was recalled, and testified in the case of the charge that Judge McCum appointed Thomas J. Barr receiver in the action of John O'Mahony agi. August Belmont and others of certain moneys, amounting to $16,000, gold: the complainant, asking for a receiver, alleged that Belmont & Co. had received this money on deposit; witness detailed the proceedings in the case, he having acted as counsel for the defendants; the money had been raised on Fenian bonds, and was deposited with Belmont & Co.; the money was taken possession of by the receiver, and it is not known where it is now.

Hiram E. Tallmadge, counsel for O'Mahony, said he went to Mr. Belmont's office to tell Receiver Barr not to take money, as the suit was settled. Counsel then had a large number of papers, comprising affidavits, orders, &c., put in as evidence.

Mr. Parsons, of the counsel for the prosecution, stated that it was necessary to explain any of the documentary evidence they would of course, be ready to give such

It being announced that the documentary evidence could not be printed until to-morrow morning Senator Murphy moved an adjournment, but withdraw his motion for Senator J. Wood, from the Judiciary Committee, who reported that they had taken up the case of George W. Curtis, Justice of the Marine Court of New-York, served a summons and a copy of the complaint on him, had heard him in response, and he had elected to be tried before the Senate, instead of before a Committee. The report was received, and the Committee discharged. The Senate then went into private assession.

On the reopening of the doors, it was announced that the final disposition of Judge McCunn's case had been set down for next Tuesday morning at 10 e'clock. The Senate then adjourned till to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock, when the Prindle case will be taken up.

OPINION IN THE CITY. The sudden retirement of ex-Judge Selden and Mr. A. C. Davis from the defense of Judge McCoun was a topic of general conversation in court circles, yesterday, and the appearance of the accused Judge on the sench of the Superior Court in this city added to the interest prevailing among lawyers. It was ru-mored early in the day that the retirement was a device of lawyers who had a hopeless case, and that, discovering they had no show before the Senate were determined to try the issue in before the Senate were determined to try the issue in the Court of Appeals. This view was subsequently confirmed in part by one of the council (Col. Davis), who made his appearance in the city in the afternoon. He claimed, however, that counsel of McCann were reluctantly forced to do that by the extraordinary rulings of the Senate adverse to his client. It appears that when the Committee of the Bar Association got possession of the official papers in the Bininger case there was found folded in one of them a private letter from Hanrahan, the receiver, to Compton, the lawyer, in which the former invited McCunn Bininger case there was found toned in one of them a private letter from Habrahan, the receiver, to Compton to, the lawyer, in which the former invited McCunn and Compton to call on him to arrange some sort of dividend. This was a surprise to the defense, but they claimed that Haurahan had written in a drunken cendition, that Compton had not called upon him as requested, and that McCunn had never known of the proposition. Judge Selden at once claimed that this letter should not be received as evidence, since it was not shown that it had ever been authorized by McCunn, but the Senate admitted the evidence and Judge Selden at once withdrew from the case. Mr. Davis, however, prevailed upon him to reconsider his action for the time, but on consultation next day the whole of the counsel withdrew, Judge McCunn was advised to return to this city and resume his seat on the bench, and when the Senate decides the case it will be carried to the Court of Appeals, and the issue raised by Col. Davis on the first day of the trial as to the legality of the Governor's recommendation to remove will be tried there. ExJudge Selden agrees with the senior counsel of McCunn in declaring the defense on this point a good one.

GOLDSMITH MAID AT PROSPECT PARK-FASTEST

THREE HEATS ON RECORD. The announcement that the four fastest trotting horses in America-Goldsmith Maid, Lucy, American Girl, and Henry-would trot for a purse of $5,000 given by the Prospect Park Fair Grounds Associhave had for the past five months a boarder, ation, attracted, yesterday, at least 10,000 people to that course. The weather was highly favorable, for the rain of the previous day had laid the dust on the roads, and the drive through the beautiful scenery of Prospect Park was thoroughly delightful. The grand stand was crowded to its utmost capacity; the railings inside the inclosure along the entire extent of the home-stretch were lined held, and afterward returned with her to her four deep with carriages, and altogether it was the largest assemblage ever seen on the Prospect Park

Some disappointment was experienced when it was anounced that American Girl would not start on account of lameness. She was brought on the track for the inspection of the judges, who at once gave her owner perission to withdraw her. In the pool-selling Goldsmith Maid was left out, for her success was looked upon as a foregone conclusion. Lucy had a strong call over Henry, $236 to $40. Budd Doble drove Goldsmith Maid; Hickok handled the reins over Lucy, and John Murphy drove Henry. The judges were Messrs. W. Turnbull, J. Har ker, and C. Kerner.

First Heat.-Lucy had the pole, Goldsmith Maid second, and Henry on the outside. When the word was given, Henry was two lengths in front of the Maid, but before they had got around the first turn, the latter, by a splendid burst of speed, overtook and passed him, and although she made a skip as she took the lead, she caught again almost instantly, and was a clean length in front at the quarter pole, Henry being the same distance beyond Lucy. On the back-stretch the Maid, trotting fast and steadily, increased her lead, and was fully three lengths in front at the half-mile pole, Henry being a length before Lucy. On the third quarter Lucy Goldsmith Maid trotted with astonishing speed on the third quarter, when Doble seeing that he had the heat safe cased his mare, and she went home a winner by to lengths in 2:19, Lucy beating Henry six lengths for record size.

Third Heat.—Henry and Goldsmith Maid got off on even terms, Lucy two lengths behind. The latter passed Henry before rounding the turn, and was two lengths infront at the quarter pole, the Maid being as far before Lucy. At the haif mile, trotted in 1:08, Goldsmith Maid led Lucy three lengths, and coming along with startling speed could have easily beaten her time in the first heat, but Doble held her in at the distance, and she crossed the score six lengths shead of Lucy, who beat Henry the same distance. The time was 2:11, and the aggregate time of the three heats is the fastest on record.

THE ERIE STRUGGLE TO BE RENEWED.

THE COMING ELECTION LIKELY TO BE CARRIED IN THE INTEREST OF THE ATLANTIC AND GREAT WESTERN-OPINIONS AND PURPOSES

OF PROMINENT OPERATORS. The approaching election for Directors of the Erie Railway, which will take place July 9, is already exciting great attention among those interested in this important thoroughfare. The rumored union of the opposing English parties, represented by McHenry and Bischoffsheim, and The London Protection Committee, is believed to be incorrect, and the contest for the control of the road is still undecided. The steamer Russia, which arrived on Tuesday night, brought to this city James McHenry, Charles Doy, T. W. Kennard, E. L. King, Geo. Crouch, and several other person supposed to be interested in the management of the railroad. The general impression is that the Bischoffsheim party hold a majority of the stock, and will accordingly secure a board of friendly directors, but it is impossible at present to speak definitely on the subject, and the result of the election may prove that the contrary is the fact. In conversation yes terday with a TRIBUNE reporter, Mr. James McHenry stated that he had no hesitation in expressing his opin ions concerning Erie affairs and his connection there-The Bischoffshelm party, Mr. McHenry says, wa not formed for purposes of speculation, nor to become large stockholders in Erie, Mr. McHenry himself never having bought or sold a share of Erie, until within six weeks when he purchased some 200 shares. The whole movement, according to Mr. McHenry, was for the pur pose of protecting the interests of the Atlantic and Great Western road, which ever since it was built has been under the harrow of the Eric road. The work was begun some two years ago, after the Atlantic and Great Western had been leased to Eric, and it was discovered that the owners had been swindled by Gould and Fisk, and an injunction was obtained from Judge Barnard, signed by him while leaning against a lamp-post, placing the road in the hands of a receiver. The success of the Sickles movement has brought to the victors a majority of the stock. Mr. McHenry said that he held, in connection with Mr. Homan, one of the new directors, proxies for more than 400,000 shares, or more than half the stock, and, in case of need, can produce the shares themselves. It is the intention to elect a Board of Directors who will see that justice is done to the great interests of the Aflantic and Great Western Railroad as well as to the Eric shareholders. The former road has a splendid traffic, and is of great importance to the Eric Road, both for its local trade in passengers and freight and as furnishing an avenue to Cincinnati. freight and as furnishing an avenue to Cincinnati. Up to the present time the Atlantic and Great Western has always been used to its own disadvantage for the benefit of Erie. There are at the present time five competitors striving to secure this route, and the stockhoiders of Erie must make up their milads either to give justice to the Atlantic and Great Western or to lose it.

The new board of directors of the Erie Road will be expected to "pro rate" with the Atlantic and Great Western, mile for mile; not to use the rolling stock of the latter road to its disadvantage; and to facilitate its passenger and other traffic precisely as they do their own. Nothing more than this will be asked, and nothing less will be taken. It is not intended to allow the Atlantic and Great Western Road to be used to injure the Erie Road, but simply that the two roads, whose interests are so closely allied, shall work harmonicously and fairly to gether.

The London Protection Committee, of which Messrs. Heath and Raphael are the representatives, was not formed for the purchase of stock, but shaply to guard against new issues by Gonid of Erie stock, and to attempt to rescue Erie by legal means from Gould's control. By a role of the London Stock Exchange no Erie stock could be sold unless the certificates had attached to them the ticket of the Protection Committee. It is said that the old Erie Ring issued simulated tickets as well as fraudulent certificates of stock, and thus kept the London market fooded, and here was where the Protection Committee failed in accomplishing its object. The report that any of the gentlemen of this Committee have had any dealings with Gould looking to a combination to secure the control of the road, Mr. McHenry says, is utterly absurd. The character of the gentlemen is such that it is impossible they should even cateriain such an idea for a moment. Gould may attempt to make combinations, but he will fail.

Mr. Cierke, Charman of the American Protection Committee, said, yesterday, that the Committee were still watching the interests of the road, and not without some hope that the Bischoffsheim and McHenry party controlled a majority of the stock, but it would not be known certainly until the election. He was confident that however the election might terminate, the future would show that the action taken by the American Committee, and those acting with them, was the best for the interests of the road.

Mr. George Crouch stated that he had returned to atgether.

tend the election, and should use what modest influence

Since the change in Frie management he has been in London, and says he has the best of reasons for believing that the design of the Elschoffsheim party is to get control of the road for the purpose of saddling it with the Atlantic and Great Western Road, to the great advantage of the latter. The intention is, he said, after griting control of the road to issue a reorganization bend to the extent of $8,000,000 or $15,000,000, and afterward to consolidate the two roads. In order to secure possession of the road, Elschoffshein purchased largely of the stock at high figures, but much of this stock, after being transferred, has been sold again, and cannot be voted on. Mr. Crouch thinks the opposition to the Bischoffsheim party holds a controlling interest in the stock, and that it will carry the coming election and put in a good board of directors.

DOMESTIC TRAGEDY IN BROOKLYN.

A YOUNG GIRL STABBED BY HER FATHER. A probable fatal case of stabbing occurred last evening in South Brooklyn, the victim being a youn woman, and the jealousy of her father the alleged cause. Lizzie Tomlin, age 20, resides with her father William J. Tomlin, at No. 577 Henry-st. They graduated on Wednesday night, at the Long Island College Hospital, and escorted Mr. Tomlin's daughter to the hall where the Commencement exercises were father's residence. Yesterday morning Tomlin reproved his daughter for going out with the student. About 7 p. m., yesterday, Miss Tomlin was sitting at the piano, in the front parlor, when her father suddenly left the room, and in a few moments returned with a large table-knife, with which he stabbed her in the forehead, above the eye. Before the terrified girl could turn around, the blow was repeated, the knife entering her neck. She screamed, and made a desperate effort to free herself from her father's grasp, and, as he was about to strike her again, she seized the blade in her right hand, which was terribly lacerated. The girl's mother and the doctor hearing her cries rushed into the room, whereupon the father ran down into the street, and fled toward Clinton-st., pursued by a large crowd of people, who had heard the rumor that he had murdered his family and was insane. He ran several blocks, and was finally overtaken and captured by Officer Gilligan of the Third Precinct, who took him to the station-hi

His wife states that he has before attempted to injure his family, and that he has suffered from fits of insanity since the death of his son, two years ago. On several occasions he has hurled pieces of furniture at her; and once, she says, the discharged a revolver at her. He has not been engaged in business for several years, the family keeping bearders for support. Tomlin is about 48 years of age, and formerly kept a grocery at South Oyster Bay.

The BRONER, especially the large pieces which are copied from the French, are the best productions of the country. The Glass Charrellan are equal if not superior to the celebrated ORLER manufacture (English), which have been heretofore acknowledged the best in the world. The Glass is of unusual whiteness.
